

Press Release

5/4/2007

Panhandle Historic Preservation Alliance Meeting Scheduled May 12

The Panhandle Historic Preservation Alliance is comprised of community leaders, organizations and individuals actively engaged in the collection, preservation and restoration of historic property and memorabilia from the State of Florida and their respective communities throughout the Panhandle.

The Alliance strives to pool and utilize resources for the vital preservation and awareness of our region's historic treasures and cultural resources. For additional information, contact (850) 678-2615. Details for the Panhandle Historic Preservation Alliance Meeting General Membership Meeting are below:

Saturday, May 12, 12:00 p.m. (Lunch served)
Alger-Sullivan Historical Society
610 4th Street
Century, Florida 32535

Contact Jerry Simmons or Don Sales at the Alger-Sullivan Historical Society for additional information at ashs@algersullivan.org or visit the Alger-Sullivan website at www.algersullivan.org.