Panhandle Historic Preservation Alliance Meeting Scheduled August 20

The Panhandle Historic Preservation Alliance (PHPA) is comprised of community leaders, organizations and individuals actively engaged in the collection, preservation and restoration of historic property and memorabilia from the State of Florida and their respective communities throughout the Panhandle.

The Alliance strives to pool and utilize resources for the vital preservation and awareness of our region's historic treasures and cultural resources. PHPA General Membership Meeting locations and times vary; the August schedule is below:

Monday, August 20, 4:00 p.m.
Air Force Armament Museum
100 Museum Drive
Eglin AFB, Florida 32542

The Air Force Armament Museum is located on State Road 85 near State Road 189 and Eglin Air Force Base's West Gate. Travel time from US 98 in Fort Walton Beach is about 10 minutes; from Interstate 10 at Crestview, about 20 minutes.

This meeting is the deadline for inclusion in the PHPA brochure. There is no charge for inclusion in this promotional brochure. Please send organization name, contact information and logo/photo to cvisalpatara@co.okaloosa.fl.us or to PHPA, c/o HMNF, 115 Westview Avenue, Valparaiso, FL 32578. Please contact Carol Visalpatara of the Heritage Museum of Northwest Florida at cvisalpatara@co.okaloosa.fl.us or (850) 678-2615 to confirm your attendance.
