Draft of Destin & Okaloosa Isle Erosion Control Line Maps Available *Public Hearings & Workshops January 14 & 15, 2009

Draft maps of beach erosion control lines are available in the City Clerk's Office in Destin at 4200 Two Trees Road, and at the Okaloosa County Tourist Development Council. The Okaloosa County Commissioners offices will also have copies available in Suite 100, 1804 Lewis Turner Boulevard, in Ft. Walton Beach.

Residents who would like to preview them prior to the upcoming workshop in Destin can view them or can request to have a copy printed for them for one dollar per page. Comments and inquiries should be submitted to the Bureau of Beaches and Coastal Systems, Department of Environmental Protection, 3900 Commonwealth Boulevard, Mail Station 300, Tallahassee, Florida, 32399-3000, prior to January 15, 2009.

The Hearing and Public Workshop to Establish the Erosion Control Line, as advertised by the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP), is scheduled for January 14 at the Emerald Coast Conference Center on Okaloosa Island at 6:00 p.m., and January 15, 1:00 p.m. at Destin City Hall Annex.

For more information, contact 850-651-7105 or 7515, and 837-4242 for Destin City Hall. To order a copy of drafts, call or email Dan Sambenedetto at 850-651-7570 or dsambenedetto@co.okaloosa.fl.us. In Destin call 837-4242 or email canderson@cityofdestin.com. Destin maps are four pages and Okaloosa Island maps are seven pages; however residents can also select a page that reflects the area in which they are interested.
