Okaloosa Saves Offers Cash For Your Bash Chance to Win $500 for your Company Employee Party

Okaloosa Saves, an Okaloosa County/University of Florida Extension Education Program, has a new event this year for businesses in Okaloosa County – Cash For Your Bash. Registrants have an opportunity to win $500 for an employee party at a drawing on November 21, 2008.

To qualify for the drawing, businesses enroll 25 or more new Okaloosa Saver employees and sign up for a one-hour financial workshop provided by Okaloosa Saves. Departments within an organization can also participate as long as they meet these requirements. Employees, friends and family members qualify as an Okaloosa Saver. Workshops include: Getting out of Debt, E-Commerce Do's & Don'ts, Saving on Auto Purchases, Identity Theft and more.

Register your business or department between August 1 and October 10, 2008. Submit Entry Packets (with 25 enrollees and scheduled date of financial workshop) no later than November 14, 2008. The purpose of Okaloosa Saves and Cash For Your Bash is to educate citizens about building wealth, not debt. Okaloosa Saves is a non-profit and doesn't sell any products at its workshops or otherwise. For more information, visit okaloosasaves.org or call Brenda Smith at 850-797-4902.
