Annual Country Store & More June 14

The Annual “Country Store” will be June 14th. This event will be held at the Charles Walthall Agricultural Center, 5479 Old Bethel Road in Crestview from 8:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. Country Store is a great place to find lots of unique items, great bargains, and fresh food.

There will be a giant yard sale with lots of bargains! This will included books, toys, clothing, household items, plants, and collectibles. Master Gardeners will be holding a plant clinic during the same time. Bring in a sample for ID or diagnosis.

There will also be a food booth with homemade baked goods, and drinks and fresh fruits and vegetables sold by local master gardeners and farmers. Don’t miss this special day, sponsored by the Okaloosa County Home & Community Education. All proceeds go to support local community efforts and educational training for volunteers.

The Okaloosa County Extension provides research, educational information and other services only to individuals and institutions that function without regard to race, color, sex, age, handicap or national origin. For persons with disabilities requiring special accommodations, please contact the Okaloosa County Extension at least 5 working days prior to the program so that proper consideration may be given to the request.

For additional information, contact Elaine Courtney, Extension Agent, Family & Consumer Sciences at (850) 689-5850 or 729-1400 extension 5850 or HCE Country Store Chairpersons, Dot Wimberly (244-0221), La Juana Hooks (862-0645).

Okaloosa County and University of Florida Extension Office provide education classes on agriculture, marine sciences, family and consumer sciences, horticulture, natural resources and water quality, as well as 4-H, and other youth programs. For more details, visit <http://okaloosa.ifas.ufl.edu>.
