Hollywood Comes to Eglin

Did you know Hollywood has a long history of making movies right here on the Emerald Coast? Come to the Heritage Museum Thursday, November 13, and hear the stories (and gossip!) about the making of these feature films right here in our own backyard. What time? Twelve O'clock High! Admission is free.

Popular Air Armament Center historians Clay T. McCutchan and Robert B. Kane will host this fun-filled program featuring some of the best known productions like Thirty Seconds Over Tokyo, Twelve O'clock High, and Dr. Strangelove. "Eglin in the Movies" is sponsored in part by the Emerald Coast Convention and Visitors' Bureau, and is part of the Florida: Then and Now series supported by the Florida Humanities Council and the National Endowment for the Humanities in partnership with Northwest Florida State College.

For additional information or to reserve a space, call (850) 678-2615 or visit www.heritage-museum.org. The Heritage Museum of Northwest Florida serves to preserve and promote our area's rich history. The museum is located at 115 Westview Avenue in Valparaiso. Hours: Tuesday – Saturday, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
