

Okaloosa County News Release

12/17/2008

Kathy Newby, 850.651.7515, knewby@co.okaloosa.fl.us

EMS to Discuss “Home for the Holidays” on News Talk 1260 Thursday

Okaloosa County Emergency Medical Services will discuss the “Home for the Holidays” program on WFTW Talk Radio 1260 on Thursday, December 18, beginning at 7:30 a.m. Call with your questions and participate in the discussion by calling 850-664-1260, and tune into 1260 AM radio.

“Home for the Holidays” program will provide transportation on Christmas Eve or Christmas Day only, from the hours of 8:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. All requests for transportation must be received by December 22, 2008. “This program is catching on in other counties, and we enjoy bringing families together,” stated EMS Division Chief Al Herndon.

Additionally, the Okaloosa County Public Safety Department will be at Wal-Mart on Saturday from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. collecting Toys for Tots. Show your appreciation for these public safety professionals by donating a toy to a child at Christmas. For more information, contact Public Safety, 850-651-7150.

###