The Okaloosa County League of Women Voters is again sponsoring their annual State of the County Report on May 31st at 10:00 a.m. The informative event will be held in the Jury Assembly Room at the Shalimar Court House on Eglin Parkway.

Okaloosa County Commission Chair James Campbell, School Board Chair Chuck Kelley and Circuit Court Judge William F. Stone will be the speakers. The panel will discuss up-to-date issues that affect all citizens in the county including budget cuts, education and school closings, county hiring, the court house safety and new location and other topics that have been front page issues. All voters and those living in the Okaloosa County area are encouraged to be informed, attend the presentation and ask their elected officials questions.

The State of the County event is the ninth year in a row that the League of Women Voters has provided the presentation to the public. For more information call 651-2619.
