Niceville: A Fish Story Showings in January Heritage Museum Archives Create Documentary

VALPARAISO, FL – A new documentary film Niceville: A Fish Story using material from the museum archives is being shown again at the Heritage Museum of Northwest Florida. The first showing is at 9:00 a.m. on Tuesday, January 27, for a $2 donation. The following Thursday, January 29 evening presentation begins at 7:00 p.m. for a $10 donation. Donations benefit the Heritage Museum and oral history projects.

“We had so many ask us when the next showing was after the initial premier late last year, and we are happy to announce these two showing times for varied audiences,” says Museum Director Michelle Severino. Spread the word about this riveting, 55-minute production featuring some of Niceville’s finest! The film will be submitted and featured in national film festivals in the year ahead.

For additional information or to become a member, call (850) 678-2615. The Heritage Museum of Northwest Florida serves to preserve and promote our area’s rich history. The museum is located at 115 Westview Avenue in Valparaiso. Museum hours are Tuesday – Saturday, 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. For more information, visit www.heritage-museum.org.
