EMS Division Chief Selected to Serve on Florida Council of EMS Chiefs

Okaloosa County Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Division Chief Al Herndon was recently elected to the Board of Directors of the Florida Council of EMS Chiefs (FCEMSC). The goals of the FCEMSC are to promote the provision of quality Emergency Medical Services in Florida through leadership and cooperative guidance; to provide a collective voice about issues relevant to its membership through active forums; and to promote the discussion and understanding of common goals between the various other EMS related constituencies, associations and organizations.

“This is a great opportunity to support EMS at the local, state and national level, and I look forward to learning and serving as a Director,” stated Herndon. He has been with Okaloosa County for 9 years. Okaloosa County EMS is a division of the Public Safety Department. For more information call 850-651-7150.
