Book Signing November 19 at Northwest Florida Regional Airport's Euro Café "Up Trail" Book by Dann Wallis Noon until 2 PM

The Northwest Florida Regional Airport will hosts author and decorated veteran Dann Wallis on Friday, November 19, 2010 from 12:00 until 2:00 p.m. in the front of the Euro Café. Mr. Wallis is the author "Burnin' Daylight" and most recently "Up Trail!" Parking will be validated for all those purchasing a book.

In "Up Trail" Mr. Wallis places two fictional characters in the historical setting of the Civil War and the reader sees the war through their eyes. A historical novel of a critical period that shaped this nation, with added adventure and romance. "Up Trail" is a must read for any Civil War enthusiast and fascinating for millions of Americans.

Dann Wallis is a decorated veteran of the Korean War and a retired senior business executive. A native of Iowa now making his home in Niceville, FL, he graduated from Iowa State University, later doing graduate work in business at the University of California-Riverside. He continues to conduct a private, business consulting practice and occasionally writes and delivers seminars on Ethics at Northwest Florida State College, where he serves as Chairman of the Institute for Senior Professionals.
