

Okaloosa County News Release

3/5/2010

Kathy Newby, 850.651.7515, knewby@co.okaloosa.fl.us

Okaloosa County Holds Second Charter Government Workshop Thursday

The Okaloosa County Board of Commissioners will hold the second workshop on charter government on Thursday, March 11, 2010. The workshop will be held in the Crestview Courthouse at 6:00 p.m. The workshops provide Okaloosa County Commissioners and the public an opportunity to learn more about charter government.

Speakers for the upcoming workshop include:

- Vince Long, Deputy County Administrator for Leon County, concerning Leon County's experience with the charter government process
- Patrick McCormack, County Attorney for St. Johns County, concerning St. Johns County's experience with the charter government process
- Steve Czonstka, former Chairman for the Okaloosa County Charter Government Commission, concerning the 2005-2006 Okaloosa County Charter Government Commission's experience with the charter government process

The first workshop was attended by approximately 60 citizens, including mayors of local municipalities, the Citizens Alliance Committee and other interested parties. The presentation from the first Charter Government workshop can be accessed on the home page at www.okaloosafl.com. Additionally the Florida Association of Counties link: http://fl-counties.com/Pages/About Floridas Counties/Charter County Info.aspx, with in-depth information, can also be accessed from home. For more information, contact our 311 Citizen Information Line or 850-651-7105.

###