

Okaloosa County News Release

2/19/2010

Kathy Newby, 850.651.7515, knewby@co.okaloosa.fl.us

EcoNomic Living Expo February 27 at Fairgrounds Smart Choices: Money, Home, Health

Learn to make Smart Choices about Money, Home and Health in 2010 at the EcoNomic Living Expo held February 27, at the C.H. “Bull” Rigdon Fairgrounds. This free event from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. includes a wide variety of booths and workshops taught by regional and area experts. Tim Center, vice president for Florida’s sustainable initiatives will be a speaker, as well as Lori Shock, from the Florida Security and Exchange Commission.

Topic range from Managing Money in Tough Times to eating healthy, and environmental topics such as a Green/Health Home, or actually make your own rain barrel, along with hands-on workshops for children and teens. The EcoNomic Living Expo is part of Okaloosa/America Saves Week February 21 through 27, 2010, visit okaloosasaves.org or call 850-689-5850 or 797-4901. Seminars, Workshops and Activities include:

- Energy Conservation
- How to Save Money
- Managing in Tough Times
- Investing Seminar
- Eat What You Grow in North Florida
- Eating Healthy
- Make a Rain Barrel workshop
- Green Lawn and Green Pocketbook Can Happen
- Green and Health Home
- Bring the kids: Bike Safety, Games, Crafts & Fun! Free prizes.
- Bring your Teen for “Money Adventures,” a great experience.
- A Piggy Bank Pageant for kids during Okaloosa Saves Week – view Piggy Banks at the Expo.
- FREE admission, Free canvas bag, and Prize Giveaways all day!

###