Okaloosa County Commission to hold Executive Session Closed Executive Session will be Followed by Open Charter Government Workshop

The Okaloosa County Commission will conduct an Executive Session at 5 p.m. on Tuesday, February 9, 2010 in the County Commission Meeting Room on the third floor of the Water & Sewer Building to discuss ongoing litigation. Following the (closed) Executive Session, there will be a public workshop on Charter Government.

After the meeting is convened, the Board will go into closed session pursuant to Section 286.011(8), Florida Statutes. The subject matter of the executive session is the pending litigation of Cornerstone Construction and Development, Inc. v. Okaloosa County. The discussions in this session shall be confined to strategy relating to litigation expenditures. The session will be recorded by a certified court reporter. The meeting will last approximately 1 hour and will be attended by Chairman Wayne Harris, Vice-Chairman Don Amunds, and Commissioners James Campbell, John Jannazo and Bill Roberts; County Administrator James Curry, County Attorney John Dowd, and Special Counsel, Greg Stewart, Esq.

Following the closed session, the Board will reconvene in open session in the Board Chambers so that Chairman Wayne Harris may announce the termination of the executive session, and proceed with the public workshop.

The Water & Sewer Administration Building is located at 1804 Lewis Turner Blvd. in Fort Walton Beach.
