

Okaloosa County News Release

5/14/2010

Kathy Newby, 850.651.7515, knewby@co.okaloosa.fl.us

P08-357

“Get Histourical!” Brochures Available A Tour of Okaloosa County Historical Museums

Okaloosa County Museum Cooperative, with the support of the Tourist Development Council, has a promotional brochure depicting local museums. The distinct history of each area is briefly described in the brochure, which includes: Destin History & Fishing Museum, City of Fort Walton Beach Heritage Park & Cultural Center, Governor Stone Schooner (sailing museum), Heritage Museum of Northwest Florida, Air Armament Museum, Baker Block Museum, Carver-Hill Museum and Robert L. Sikes Office & Collection.

The museums of Okaloosa County strive to preserve and promote the region’s rich heritage. Through exhibits, public programs and proper care of collections, they ensure that Northwest Florida’s unique history and culture are a part of the future. Pick up a “Get Histourical!” brochure at the museums, the Visitors Welcome Center on Okaloosa Island, or a printable version can be accessed online on the visitor information page www.heritage-museum.org.

###