Okaloosa County Comprehensive Analysis Online *Budget Policy Workshop Apr. 27

Okaloosa County has begun the 2010-11 budget cycle by completing a comprehensive analysis to begin formulation of its budget policies. The analysis includes economic information, government revenue and expenditure policies, capital projects, millage process and more in order to assist the Board in County Commissioners in formulation fiscal policy and direction to county staff in creation of the Fiscal Year 2011 budget.

The Process begins with a workshop on April 27, at 6:00 p.m. in the Fort Walton Beach Water and Sewer building, located at 1804 Lewis Turner Boulevard. The public is invited to participate, and the comprehensive analysis can be reviewed online prior to the workshop. The adopted budget policies will serve as a framework for consideration of Ad Valorem taxation issues now through the Final Public Hearing in September.

Performance Based Budgeting will also be utilized this year entirely, and a five-year capital spending plan is included. For the entire schedule of workshops and budget policy documents, visit www.okaloosafl.com. Feel free to call 850-651-7515 or 651-7105 for more information.
