Tops'l Premier Beach & Tennis Resort and the Northwest Florida Regional Airport Featured on "Wheel of Fortune" Thursday, April 15, 2010

On Thursday, April 15, 2010 Tops'l Beach and Racquet Resort and The Northwest Florida Regional Airport will be featured on Wheel of Fortune. The two businesses have teamed up to award a Seven Day prize package to a lucky winner with an all expensed paid trip to beautiful Destin, Florida.

Tops'l Beach and Racquet Resort will provide the accommodations, resort bucks, golf, and spa package and the airport is providing the air travel. The winner will have to land on the predetermined space on the wheel and guess a letter correctly to be awarded the prize. "This is the sixth time we have been on the "Wheel" and we will be on with other resorts later in the spring. This offers another great opportunity to showcase our entire region on a national level," said Mike Stenson, Business Development Manager for the Northwest Florida Regional Airport.

Vickie Warner, Regional Marketing Director of ResortQuest, states "We are very excited to be partners with the Northwest Florida Regional Airport by featuring Tops'l Beach and Racquet Resort as part of this Wheel of Fortune prize trip and feel confident it will bring recognition to the beautiful Northwest Florida area." This will air on the local FOX 10 Affiliate, WALA in this area.
