Okaloosa County Commissioner Dave Parisot Gains Certification

Commissioner Dave Parisot has completed the Florida Association of Counties (FAC) Certified County Commissioner Program. Parisot completed some courses via webinars to save travel and lodging cost, and others were taken in conjunction with FAC meetings and conferences. Coursework encompasses 42 hours, and Commissioner Parisot exceeded that, with 53 hours in an 11-month period.

Every Okaloosa County Commissioner is encouraged to complete the program, which consists of training in the following areas: ethics, public records, Sunshine laws, growth management, financial management, emergency management, economic development, state legislative process, leadership and strategic thinking.
