FREE Water Management Program at Okaloosa County Extension Office

Public Service Announcement

The Okaloosa County Extension Office in conjunction with the Florida Irrigation Society will be hosting the Water Management Summit of Northwest Florida. Please join us on Friday, January 28, 2011 from 8:00 am to 4:30 pm for a FREE event on water management practices held at the Okaloosa County Extension Office, 5479 Old Bethel Road, Crestview.

Learn from expert guest speakers, including Dr. Michael Dukes from the University of Florida, Tom Shannon from Ewing Irrigation, and Sheila Dunning from the Okaloosa County Extension Office. Meet with representative from Hunter, Rain Bird, FX Luminaire, The Andersons, Hardscape USA, and Tremron Pavers to view and discuss their top water saving products. A buffet lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP to Sheila Dunning at the Okaloosa County Extension Office, 850-689-5850 or Josh Duke at Ewing, Fort Walton Beach, 850-243-0911.

The Okaloosa County Extension program provides research, educational information and other services only to individuals and institutions that function without regard to race, color, sex, age, handicap or national origin. For persons with disabilities requiring special accommodations, please contact the Okaloosa County Extension Office at least 5 days prior to the program so that proper consideration may be given to the request.
